As soen as the boys left the ring As soon as the boys left the ring loud cries for Corbett to make a speech were made. Someone called, "Three cheers for Fitzsimmons!" and they were given with a will by lanky Rob's partisans, many of whom were among the spectators. Corbett climbed through the ropes and from the ring he addressed the audience as well as he could amid the cries and cheers. He said.

Corbett Gives Thanks.

"Gentlemen, I thank you very much. You have all the representative newspaper men of America here tonight, and all I can say is that if I was in England or Australia and acted as Fitzsimmens did in this match I would be chased out of the country." (Cheers.)

(Cheers.)

O Donnell was the first to enter the ring after Corbett had concluded. He was attended by Billy Delaney, his trainer: Jimmy McCabe and Benny Murphy. It was then $250 o'clock and Maher followed a minute later. He was esquired by Peter Lowrey. Peter Burns and Buck Cornellus, of Pittsburg. Jack McAuliffe sat at the ring-side behind Maher, and Billy Brady was close behind watching everything. was close behind watching everything. He did not have to wait long, as the men got together and Maher quick as lightning smashed his right on O'Donnell's jaw. O'Donnell fell like a log, but regained his feet as the referee counted seven.

Then He Laid Him Out.

Maher gave him no quarter and floored the Australian with another blow on the faw with his right. This time O'Donnell laid down for nine seconds. The moment he got up Maher held him in the same corner and sent his left with sledgehammer force on the right jaw. O'Donnell fell flat on his back and after being counted out had to be carried to his corner, while the referee announced Maher the winner. Time, 63 seconds.

the referee announced Maher the winner. Time, 63 seconds.

Men threw up their hats and yelled like denons. Many of them succeeded in getting into the ring and hugged Maher. Corbett jumped into the ring, pushed his way over to the victor and grabbed him by the hand and congratulated him. He said. "Maher, you have fought a good fight."

It was rumored that Corbett had presented Maher with the heavyweight champlonship, but this rumor was denied later. The action time that both men were on their feet was 37 seconds. The arena was not cleared for fully 30 minutes after the fight was over. O'Donnell's party had no excuse to offer for the Australian's poor showing.

Hall, the Australian, which was to have taken place near here tonight proved a fizzle. There was no purse and the attendance was so small that the men refused to fight.

A Fluke at Baltimore.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 11.—George Godfrey (Old Chocolate) got the decision from Billy Woods, et Denver, on a foul in the minth round at the Front street theatre "Young Griffo" was Woods' second. The men fought at 12p pounds.

Woods appeared to be badly out of condition and the fight he put up was a disappointment to his friends.

Godfrey hammered him right and left from the start. In the ninth round Woods delivered three foul blows in succession and Godfrey was given the decision.

Jack Ward, of Newark, and Louis Collins, who called himself the champion featherweight of the south, were to have fought ten rounds at 105 pounds as a preliminary, but Ward put his man to cleep in the second.

OMAHA, Nov. 11 .- Sergeant Forby, of the Thurston Rifles, says that the charges brought by the Morton Rifles, of Washington, that the Thurston won the Memphis trophy by the aid of the Memphis trophy by the aid of members of the regular army posing among them as Thurstors, is based only upon the fact that when the Thurstons went to Memphis they took as their guests Lieutensart Van Lief and two sergeants and a corporal detailed by Colonel Bates to go there with them to correct errors, but that the members of the regular army took no part in the drills. He adds that while the Moruans bring this charge, they also had as their guests a member of the regular army for the same purpose. Sergeant Forby also adds that the claim of the Mortons that the Thurstons were only a reorganization of the Omaha guands was absurd and arose from the fact that two ex-members of the guards were formacly guards.
